

HALL OF FAME
INAUGURAL CLASS
INDUCTION
JANUARY 15, 2010

JAMES "JIM" DANLEY

All Jim Danley has done since arriving at Eaton High School outside of Greeley in 1972 is win state championships. Over 38 seasons, his teams have won nine state championships and made 16 state championship appearances, including 14 in the past 17 seasons.

He has compiled an incredible 666-149-2 overall record (81.6 winning percentage) and his teams have made 23 Final Four appearances and 31 state tournament appearances.

Danley has been honored by nearly every baseball publication in the state, region and nation for his achievements, including the National High School Coaches Association Baseball Coach of the Year in 2003 and the National Federation of High School Coaches Coach of the Year in 2002. Jim has been named Colorado Coach of the year 6 times. He has been named the coach of the year in Eaton's conferences 29 times.

Born in Gill, Colorado, on a family farm that he still owns, Danley grew up in Greeley and graduated from the University of Northern Colorado. He was a teacher and counselor at Eaton until retiring in the early 2000s. He has two sons, Jimmy and Kirk.